8TH GRADE ENGLISH HONORS

MRS. APPLEBY | 2017-2018

FOOD POLICY

I understand you have a late lunchtime, and having a quick snack in class will be allowed; however, full lunch consumption will not be allowed in English class! The rule of thumb is: if you can hold your snack in your lap while you are actively writing or reading you can have it in class. No lunches unpacked onto your desk taking up desk/learning space. THIS IS ENGLISH CLASS. YOU NEED TO BE ABLE TO READ AND WRITE AT ALL TIMES. If you have a question about what is permitted, clear it with me first.*

TARDY POLICY

I hope we don't need a tardy policy in Honors class. You must be in class when the bell rings or you will be considered tardy. You may come to class prepared with materials including: paper and writing utensils, homework assignments, books, etc.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Cell phones and personal computers may be used only with teacher permission. Cell phones should not even be on your desk (because they are so tempting) without teacher permission. If you need to call a parent, or if you have a personal situation going on that requires immediate communication just let me know and I will allow you to use my phone. You may not wear headphones in my classroom unless you specifically ask and are granted permission from me.

PARENTAL PERMISSION

Due to the media literacy requirements of Common Core Standards, and also popular demand, we will view different movies, documentaries and media snippets in this class. Please initial below whether or not your student has permission to watch PG (or TV-PG) rated fiction and documentaries throughout the year. (Some titles we will watch with a PG rating are: White Fang, The Outsiders, Sherlock Holmes: The Adventure of the Speckled Band, World War II The Last Heroes etc.) If high rating movies are necessary, I will send home a separate slip.

Initial one:

_____ I give my student permission to watch PG viewings in English class.

_____ I do not give my student permission to watch PG viewings in English class.

CONTRACT

The honors program is about challenging oneself to go above and beyond the state mandated curriculum. In an honors program the student is held to a higher standard in both the work he/she completes, and the way that student presents himself or herself. With that in mind, an honors student exhibits traits that all students should aspire to: drive, timeliness, ability to multi-task, and a healthy sense of competition and inspiration to be the best in class. The student should be reading at a high level, be able to comprehend and think critically about texts, understand the verbiage associated with reading and writing, and be willing and eager to participate in a high-level Socratic discussion about a myriad of themes and ideas. An honors student is above all mature, respectful and able to appropriately handle difficult themes and differing opinions.

RULES FOR REMAINING IN HONORS:

- Students in Honors must maintain a “C” or better each quarter. If grade gets below a “C,” the student will face a review by the teacher and the building principal that may result in removal from the class
- Cheating on tests, assignments or PLAGIARISM will be cause for immediate removal from the class, and an “F” will be placed in for the final grade on that assignment
- Have zero (0) unexcused absences
- Receive an A, B, or C on all reading tests and quizzes (without retakes)
- Any discipline referrals will result in a review from the building principal.
- Have 2-3 hours of verifiable community service per trimester
- Meet proficiency on all English standards
- Have no more than one zero or late assignment per trimester

If you fail to meet the eligibility requirements, you will not earn an honors designation on your transcript and you may be removed from the class at any time. I have read this contract and agree to the terms listed above.

I have read the above and understand the expectations reviewed. Please sign and return the Parental Permission and Contract to Mrs. Appleby by Monday, September 11, 2017.
